NEWSLETTER OF THE MONTANA STATE LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND &
PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED
FALL, 1992

BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS

It's that time of year when we need to know if you want extra books for over the holidays. The Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped will not be sending out tapes from Dec. 7th through Dec. 29th. Every year the post office asks us to discontinue service because they are overwhelmed with Christmas cards and packages. Call early with your book requests and avoid the rush!!

LBPH NEWS

NEWSLETTER MAILING LIST

In an effort to reduce costs we will send newsletters only to those who are interested in receiving them. You must let us know if you wish to continue receiving our newsletter by completing and returning the enclosed, self-addressed card. Be sure to indicate if you wish to receive the newsletter in print, on tape or in braille. COMPLETE AND RETURN THE CARD IF YOU WISH TO CONTINUE RECEIVING THE NEWSLETTER !!

PUBLIC FORUMS HELD THROUGHOUT STATE

Six public forums have been held around the state to give the Library staff and patrons an opportunity to become better acquainted, ask or answer questions, and receive input regarding our service as well as provide information to interested members of the public.

The library staff also shares information with the participants about related services such as the MAB, SRS Visual Services, Low Vision Clinic and Radio Reading Service.

Forums have been held in Miles City, Lewistown, Missoula, Kalispell, Libby and Great Falls. Butte, Billings and Bozeman are on the agenda and we hope to get there before the weather gets bad. The forums have received a positive response from staff and patrons alike. It has been great to meet and visit with all of you. A special thanks to everyone who has been able to attend our forums. The staff is looking forward to meeting more of you.
